Feed My Starving Children – Speakers Bureau Commitment

Feed My Starving Children is a Christian food-relief nonprofit organization. Through prayer and studying of God's holy word, we seek to know and to follow God's will for the organization. We seek Speakers Bureau members who share our Christian faith and our commitment to obeying God's will. We ask that as a member of the Speakers Bureau you keep FMSC in your prayers.

Characteristics of Speakers Bureau member:

A Speakers Bureau volunteer is an individual that has an affinity for FMSC and the values we promote. The ideal speaker will demonstrate a willingness to support and promote FMSC's Christian mission and goals. He/she will have a pleasant and professional demeanor, be proactive in working with host partners, and be comfortable communicating the story of FMSC in front of large and small groups.

The minimum responsibilities of a Speakers Bureau member include:

- Volunteering at a packing session at least twice a year.
- Volunteered at least 4 times.
- Responding to at least 2 requests for an FMSC speaker per year.
- Proactively coordinate with Speakers Bureau manager to obtain any materials needed for speaking engagements.
- Attending two of the three FMSC Speakers Bureau yearly trainings.
- Regularly checking the following sources, in order to stay up to date:
 - FMSC e-newsletter: <http://www.fmsc.org/manna>
 - FMSC Blog: <http://fmscblog.com/>
 - FMSC mission partners on MarketPlace: www.fmscMarketPlace.org

In addition to the minimum responsibilities, preferred responsibilities of a Speakers Bureau member include:

- Proactively identify and schedule 1-2 speaking engagements per year.
- Sending hand-written thank you note to the host of speaking engagements.
- Meeting with Speakers Bureau manager or other FMSC Development Staff at least once a year.
